

Honest: Character Building Patch Program®

This 2" iron-on embroidered patch is part of our patch program®.

Be honest. It's a message we should continue to reinforce with children of all ages.

Suggestions for how pre-teens and tweens can earn the Honest patch:

Is It Ever OK To Lie?

Our download shares six scenarios for your girls to review and talk about what happens if they tell the truth or lie in each situation. Challenge your girls to find ways to be honest without hurting someone else's feelings.

Suggestions for how teens can earn the Honest patch:

Truth and Consequences

Our download shares six scenarios more relevant to older girls. Ask your girls to go over each situation together talk about what happens if they tell the truth or lie. Challenge your girls to be honest about what they think is the right thing for each scenario. Also encourage them to listen respectfully to the reasons why other girls might have a different opinion.

Suggestions for Community Honesty:

Spread honesty. The best way for your girls to spread honesty is to lead by example. Challenge your girls to be honest and fair by not participating when their friends ask them to lie.
