

Winter Olympics Patch Program

You won't get another chance to earn this patch for four years!

How Daisies and Brownies can earn this patch:

Watch it and try it.

Print the Olympic scavenger hunt on the next page for each girl. As a troop or with their families ask the to view some of Olympic competitions on television or on the internet. How many of the items can they find in the scavenger hunt. Try sock skating! Find a smooth slippery floor and ask the girls to each choreograph a figure skating routine to perform for the other girls or even better take the girls ice skating!

How Juniors and Cadettes can earn this patch:

Learn some fun facts.

Print the Olympic scavenger hunt on the next page for each girl. As a troop or with their families ask the to view some of Olympic competitions on television or on the internet. How many of the items can they find in the scavenger hunt.

Print page 3 of this download for each girl. Can they figure out the correct answers? Answers below.

Ask the girls to make up an indoor version of a winter sport such a curling with brooms and paper plates or pompom and craft stick ice hockey. If you have snow on the ground make up a snow event such as sled races or snowball target shooting.

How Seniors and Ambassadors can earn this patch:

Make it a party!

Choose any of the activities above and share them other Girl Scouts.

Answers to the Fun Facts on Page 3 are in this Order :

39 17 26 79 5 1 6 21 31

W I N T E R

OLYMPIC SCAVENGER HUNT

W I N T E R

2018 OLYMPIC FUN FACTS

How many of these 2018 U.S. Olympic Team Fun Facts can you answer correctly?

Ice hockey player, Brian Gionta, is the oldest team member. He is years old.

Figure skater, Vincent Zhou, is the youngest. He is years old.

The average age of the athletes is .

The tallest member of the team is alpine skier Bryce Bennett. He is inches tall.

Skaters Karen Chen and Jessica Kooreman are feet tall. They are the shortest.

There is set of twins on the team and additional sets of siblings.

of the athletes have children.

There are states represented at this year's Olympics.

Choose from these answers:

1 5 6 17 21 26 31 39 79