

Obeying Rules

Do you know why we have rules and laws? They are for your safety and to protect other people and animals, and to keep the earth healthy. What might happen if you didn't obey each of the signs below?

